5. ☐ The brief does not contain a concise statement of each ground of rejection presented for review (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(vi)).
6. ☐ The brief does not present an argument under a separate heading for each ground of rejection on appeal (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(vii)).
7. ☐ The brief does not contain a correct copy of the appealed claims as an appendix thereto (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(viii)).
8. ☐ The brief does not contain copies of the evidence submitted under 37 CFR 1.130, 1.131, or 1.132 or of any other evidence entered by the examiner and relied upon by appellant in the appeal, along with a statement setting forth where in the record that evidence was entered by the examiner, as an appendix thereto (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(ix)).

Continuation of 10. Other (including any explanation in support of the above items):

First and foremost, the appellants are cordially thanked for the 'Brief on Behalf of Appellants Under 37 CFR 41.37' filed 27 May 2007. However, at least one non-compliant issue has been discovered in the aforementioned response, requiring attention before examination may continue.

37 C.F.R. § 41.37(c)(1)(v) requires the 'Summary of claimed subject matter' section of the brief must provide, "A concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims involved in the appeal, which shall refer to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawing, if any, by reference characters. For each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claim argued separately under the provisions of paragraph (c)(1)(vii) of this section, every means plus function and step plus function as permitted by 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, must be identified and the structure, material, or acts described in the specification as corresponding to each claimed function must be set forth with reference to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawing, if any, by reference characters."

MPEP § 1205.02 explains, "A concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims involved in the appeal, which must refer to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawing, if any, by reference characters. While reference to page and line number of the specification requires somewhat more detail than simply summarizing the invention, it is considered important to enable the Board to more quickly determine where the claimed subject matter is described in the application. For each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claim argued separately under the provisions of 37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(vii), every means plus function and step plus function as permitted by 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, must be identified and the structure, material, or acts described in the specification as corresponding to each claimed function must be set forth with reference to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawing, if any, by reference characters. If appellant does not provide a summary of the claimed subject matter as required by 37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(v), the Office will notify appellant of the defect in the brief and give appellant a time period within which to file an amended brief. See 37 CFR 41.37(d)."

The claimed invention is not mapped to "each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claim argued separately," so as to refer to the specification by page and line number and to the drawings, if any as required by 37 C.F.R. § 41.37(c)(1)(v). At present, the claimed invention is not mapped to any claims whatsoever.

At least for such reasoning, the pending 'Brief on Behalf of Appellants Under 37 CFR 41.37' filed 27 May 2007 is deemed non-compliant.

Please note: The appeal brief has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible non-compliance errors. If additional issues of non-compliance are discovered in a subsequent response, yet another Notification of Non-Compliant Appeal Brief will be necessitated. Appellants' cooperation is requested in correcting any other errors of which appellants may become aware in the brief.
